Shepherd's Center, 1700 Ebert Street, W-S, NC 27103

Shepherd's Center Singer's Rehearsals New Season Begins Jan 7, 2020 2:00pm - 4:00pm on Tuesdays

If you love to have fun and enjoy singing in 3-4 part harmony this is the chorus for you.

Being able to read music is a plus but not required.

Song selections include such styles as:
Pop, old & new; folksongs; spirituals;
ballads; and even some novelty songs.

There will be some choreography and props added for visual effects.

Join the Shepherd's Center Singers and let's make beautiful music together!

Carmina (AKA Peggy) Jenks has been an eclectic musician her whole life.

A singer and an instrumentalist,
Carmina's repertoire includes piano, double bass, trombone, saxophone, drum set, and Indian sitar.

Her first Conducting Workshop was at the age of 12 at a Choir School in Indiana where she conducted her first children's choir.

She has taught music in International Schools in India, where she began a Choir Festival, and in Luxembourg, where she founded Voices International, A Community Choir.

Additional passions were the Music Director at Friends Church on Reynolda and Trinity Presbyterian Church in Winston Salem, from which she retired recently.

She also conducted the Shepherd's Center's W-S New Horizons Band
for a time.

Currently, Carmina conducts the Shepherd's Center Singers, which she began on 2016.

A donation of $2.00 per class session and $15.00 donation for music per season is greatly appreciated.
